

PROGRAM

10th December

Thursday

-

9:30 am

Opening Session

Rector Magnificus

President of the Faculty

Scientific Coordinator of the LabCom.IFP

Presidents of Departaments

10:15 am

Humanities and the Limits of Human

Gilbert Hottois (Université Libre de Bruxelles)

Faces of trans/posthumanism

in the light of the question of humanism

Leonel Ribeiro dos Santos (University of Lisbon)

André Barata (University of Beira Interior)

The limits of human means the limits of philosophy

Chair: José Manuel Santos (University of Beira Interior)

12:30 am

Lunch – Wool Museum

2:30 pm

Humanities, Politics and New Media

João Carlos Correia (University of Beira Interior)

The importance of Social Networks

for the Communication Sciences

José Luís Garcia (ICS-UL)

Scanning, transformations in the media and public sphere

Peter Dahlgren (Lund university)

Revitalized Humanities: Allies for analyzing civic agency and practices in the digital environment

Chair: Manuela Penafria (University of Beira Interior)

4:30 pm

Coffee Break

4:45 pm

The Future of Book and Literature and the Digital Media

Gino Roncaglia

(Università degli Studi della Tuscia - Viterbo)

Chair: Paulo Osório (University of Beira Interior)

6:00 pm

Release of books and journals and opening of the exhibition space FAL/LabCom.IFP

8:00 pm

Dinner – Malufa Canteen

11th December

Friday

-

10:00 am

Digital Memory: Preserving the Past with New Technologies

Kathryn Piquette (UCL Centre for Digital Humanities, University College of London)

Arianna Ciula (University of Roehampton)

Digital Humanities and practical memory: modelling textuality

Chair: Urbano Sidoncha (University of Beira Interior)

12:30 am

Lunch – Wool Museum

2:30 pm

Arts and Digital Media

Alastair Fuad-Luke (Aalto University)

An ecosophical inquiry into the digital mediation of

Alternative Food Networks (AFNs) in the expanding field of agri-culture

Anna Calvera (University of Barcelona)

The world of design, a designed world. The relevance of aesthetics in everyday life wellbeing and quality of life are concepts necessarily involving an aesthetic dimension

Chair: Francisco Paiva (University of Beira Interior)

4:30 pm

Coffee Break

5:00 pm

Closing Session

Humanities and the Future of Media and Communication

Moisés Martins (Minho University)

Cultural Studies and Humanities

Chair: Paulo Serra (University of Beira Interior)